DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-23 are, drawn to a method of custom sweetening a pharmaceutical dosage form, classified in class 424, subclass 401.
 - II. Claims 24-34 are, drawn to a kit comprising two containers one containing pharmaceutical dosage forms and second container containing customization agents, classified in class 424, subclass 401.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case group I recites the process of combining a pharmaceutical dosage form and a customization agent comprising a sweetening and flavoring agent to make a customized dosage form. And group II recites a kit comprising (i) a first container containing one or more pharmaceutical dosage forms (ii) a second container containing one or more customization agents (iii) and a third container comprising an additional quantity of pharmaceutical dosage forms. These are patentably distinct because, invention of group II can be made by materially different process.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for inventions I and II are also different, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Election of Species.

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species.

a. A single disclosed dosage form is a liquid such as syrups, suspensions, solutions and emulsions as recited in claim 2 and 15.

b. A single disclosed customization agent is a solid consisting particles, flakes, crystals, powders, agglomerates, beads, strips, fibers, films, tablets, and capsules as recited in claims 3 and 17.

Applicant is required to elect a single disclosed species from each category (a) and (b).

2. The species are patentably distinct because each compound has chemically different structure which may not be related or may not share same structure core.

Art Unit: 1618

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species explicitly for prosecution, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Conclusion

1. No claims are allowed at this time.

Art Unit: 1618

2. All pending claims are subject to restriction/election requirement.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jagadishwar R. Samala whose telephone number is (571)272-9927.
